

Participation in the Home Energy Assessment program or New Home Construction program precludes homeowners from receiving rebates for the same upgrades in other Efficiency Nova Scotia programs. Only rebates from one program will be issued for any particular measure.

Water Heating Equipment Rebate Guide

Equipment Information and Eligibility Criteria
System Type	Eligibility Criteria	Incentives	Equipment Eligibility Criteria
			Certification Requirements	Install Requirements
Three-Element Water Heater	replacing existing oil-fired domestic hot water systems	$ 650/System	Unit must have three elements, with the third being designed to run at low power over long periods. Giant ECOPEAK® models only at this time	Three-Element Water Heater must be installed by a certified plumber and must be replacing existing oil-fired or electric domestic water heating system
	replacing existing electric domestic hot water systems	$ 400/System
Solar Thermal: Domestic Hot Water	All homes	$ 1000/System	Single family residential Solar Water Heating systems must have OG-300 System Certification by SRCC (Solar Rating and Certification Corporation).	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Components must be new and unused. • System installations must conform to manufacturer's specifications and all applicable codes and standards

Please Note: Rebates are not available for the replacement of existing Three- Element Water Heating and Solar Thermal Water Heating equipment. For installations prior to April 1st, 2021, previous incentives of $450/system for oil-fired replacement and $200/system for electric replacement will apply.

Funded in part by:
Financé en partie par :

efficiencyns.ca
1 877 999 6035

